Leon

It is not your imagination. Let me know when you have some time and I will visit you tomorrow or Friday and give you some insight into what is going on.

Evening folks.

I'm curious if something has changed recently because I have seen (as well as that some of my other constituents on our block) extreme uptick of aggressive and violently unstable individuals. And I say "changed" because I was one of the folks that would say I felt like it was getting better for the longest time. That the idea of natural surveillance was working and we were pushing the frontier further east.

I don't know if there has been a mass release of 5150s somewhere because you can only hold them for a certain amount of time but it just seems like this end of the block has increasingly gotten worse recently.

It makes it incredibly tough to continue to drive rate and tout ourselves as a luxury offering in this environment esp when I have to supplement and pay $10,000 a month in security (outside of what I pay for the bid security) just to have some semblance of peace on the Metro Plaza.

From what I understand now the hotels in West Hollywood have actively been marketing against us using the crime statistics as a tool to pry higher end clientele out of Hollywood.

Is there something else that can be done? I know that we have a Security Council what are their feelings? what are their thoughts?
